

Belgrade, 7 March 2019

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Herewith the Ethnographic Museum in Belgrade is pleased to invite you to participate at the 28 International Festival of Ethnological Films that will be held on 7–10 October 2019.

The Festival seeks to promote the successful visual research of traditional and modern cultures all over the world and to contribute to raising general awareness of the importance of cultural heritage for the quality development of human communities.

The Festival will present various programs, on one hand in its competitive sections for the four major awards (Grand-Prix ‘‘Dragoslav Antonijević’’, the best international film, the best national film, and the best student film), as well as special programs, such as the production of ethnographic documentaries on indigenous communities funded by the Chilean Foundation for Heritage, and the workshop for creative documentaries in cooperation with the Universities from Brno, Czechia.

The call for participation at the Festival will be open until 31 May 2019. Please find enclosed the application form and regulations of the Festival.

Kindly submit the entry form to the email: mfef@etnografskimuzej.rs
The detailed information about the Festival and the application procedure can be found on the Festival’s website: www.etnofilm.org

We hope to have an opportunity to collaborate with you and meet in Belgrade in October 2019.

Best regards,

Saša Srećković, Executive Director
